Old Business

- Scott Property – The Selectmen voted against the Conservation Commission buying the property. Ralph Buchanan was not here to tell us what Mr. Scott plans to do.
- Lake Host – Lynn Clark will follow up on the final report for this year. The Lake Host money was removed from the Conservation Commission budget by the Selectmen in order to put it on the warrant article with milfoil control.
- Bird watching program – Eric Masterson is scheduled for 6:00 on April 10 at the library

New Business

- Lynn Clarke made a motion to donate $100 to Elaine Connors Center for Wildlife. Jean Hansen seconded the motion and it carried.
- Lynn Clarke reported on the Energy Expo in Wolfeboro. There are grants for solar power and Sumner Brook is looking into this. Jonathan Gregory will speak at our December meeting.
- Recycling – Lynn will write a letter to organizations about recycling. The Recreation newsletter and Facebook could be used to focus attention on recycling.
- Lynn also asked about doing a holiday project. It was decided to bring food to donate to the next meeting on December 11, 2013.

Lynn Clarke made a motion to adjourn at 8:13. Charlotte seconded the motion and it carried.
